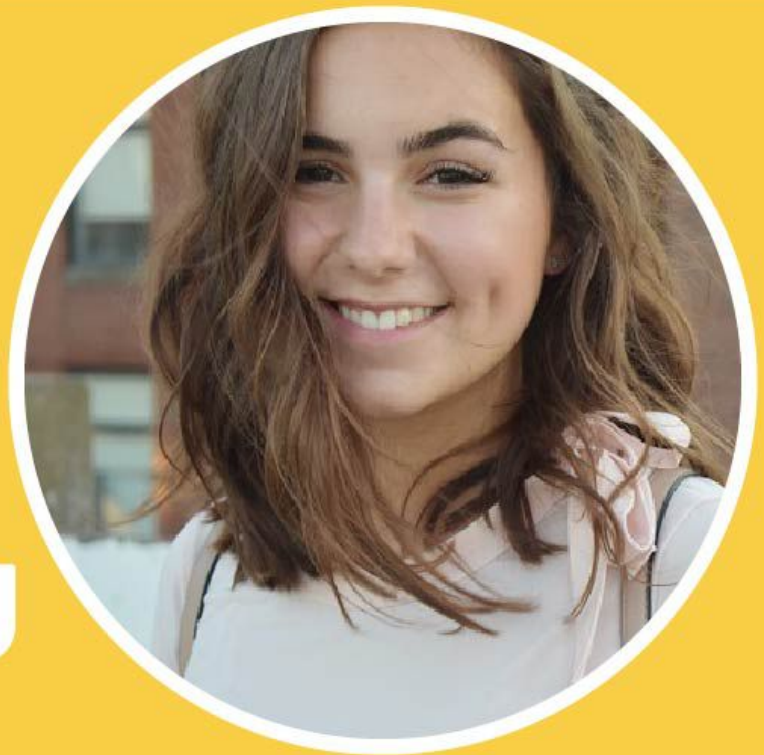
CONGRATULATIONS!

TO OUR 2019 JAMES RAYMOND COWLING SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS.

ZACHARY DILWORTH



KARINE BOUDREAU

BEST BUDDIES SCHOLARSHIP
Winner are.....

SHYANE WIEGERS

Congratulations to Shyane who has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship for her hard work and dedication for over 7 years in the Best Buddies program! She currently attends University of Saskatchewan but was also part of Best Buddies chapters at Riffel High School and the University of Windsor.

Thanks to her strong leadership skills, she has been able to accomplish a lot for her chapters. Amongst other things, she has helped organize two Best Buddies Galas at the University of Windsor that attracted over 120 members of the community and raised over $3,500!

Keep sharing your passion for inclusion!

Shyane and her Best Buddy, Cody

HOLLY ALLEN

Congratulations to Holly who has been awarded $500 for her hard work and dedication for 4 years in the Best Buddies program at St. Maximilian Kolbe Catholic High School. She has now joined the Western University Best Buddies chapter.

Holly has been paired with her Best Buddy/friend, Tommy, from the very start of her involvement with the program. She gradually took on bigger leadership roles within her chapter going from Head of Public Relations to Co-President in her final year of High School. A notable accomplishment was hosting a Semi Formal Dance and Dinner for over 100 students in neighboring schools!

Great work Holly!

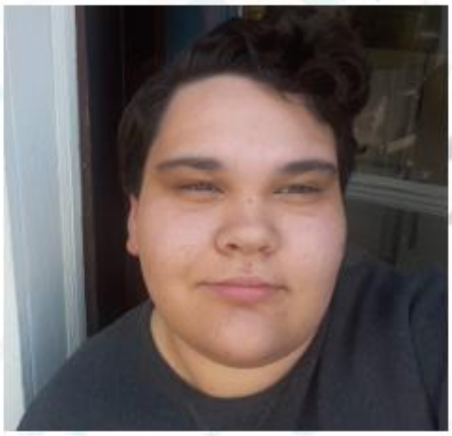
JAMES RAYMOND COWLING

HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

STEVEN FENN



Steven Fenn has been awarded the James Raymond Cowling Scholarship Best Buddies program at St. John Catholic High School. He has now joined the Best Buddies chapter at Queen's University, where he is studying to obtain his Bachelor of Arts in Political Studies. Steven was the Best Buddies Chapter President of his high school for four years, where he worked closely with all members. Steven presented on behalf of Best Buddies to local school boards, which led to higher involvement in his area.

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

VICTORIA CRAIG

Victoria is a fourth-year Social Work student at King's University College, and President of the Best Buddies chapter. She has been involved with Best Buddies for the last three years first as a peer buddy and has held various positions. She worked to bring the Best Buddies Friendship Walk to Canada to start a conversation in London about accessibility and the inclusion of people with disabilities in her community.
